TOP RARE & ANCIENT COIN SELECTIONS

Find below a list of some of our favorite inventory selections

1870 S $20 Liberty PCGS Mint State 60 – The 1870 San Francisco Double Eagle is a very tough coin to locate in Mint State condition. It has a lower mintage and lower survival rate than most San Fran $20's from the 1870's and it is seldom found nicer. If you're looking for a great US $20 to put away for a while, consider this one. Special Price of $5,250.

Athens Silver Owl Tetradrachm NGC Choice Mint State 5x5 – In the book entitled, The 100 Greatest Ancient Coins, the #10 highest ranked coin is the Athenian Silver Tetradrachm, commonly known at the Silver Owl. Struck over 2,400 years ago, these large 17 gram silver coins are each one of a kind and depict the goddess Athena on the obverse and an owl on the reverse. These coins were extensively circulated across the ancient empires for hundreds of years. Special Price of $4,985.

Mysia Cyzicus Electrum Full Stater NGC Very Fine 4x4 – Dating back around 2,500 years, this impressive and hefty full stater is struck from electrum--a mixture of gold and silver. The obverse is one that we have yet to encounter--the full image of Ketos--a sea monster from ancient lore. Interesting incuse punch on the back and truly a great coin for the money. Special Price of $9,575.

Julius Caesar Gold Aureus NGC Choice Very Fine 5x4 – The first Roman Emperor, Julius Caesar, is known around the world over 2,000 years after his demise. This gold stater has seen some circulation in the past and all design details are still evident on both sides. Coinage of Julius Caesar is some of the most desirable of any ancient series. The coin shown is the exact coin you will receive. Special Price of $9,950.
